

OUTSPOKEN LIVE!

RAP/SPOKEN WORD EVENT by young people from East London

To launch the video installation by French artist Melik Dhanian young people from East London will perform their own rap and spoken word on the theme of identity and belonging. During a weekend workshop with MC Angel and Deanna Rodger young people from diverse ethnic backgrounds learnt how to create their own work and perform it to a live audience. These workshops follow on from rap/spoken word already created by young people from diverse ethnic backgrounds in Paris. OUTSPOKEN project is about connecting and comparing experiences of young people between Paris and London. Listen to their voices...
